We are pleased to share with you some standout moments from this historic event in Washington, D.C. on May 11-13.

Thursday, May 11 the Opening Ceremony on the JFK Hockey Fields formally kicked off Camp Legacy.

Highlights from the live-streamed ceremony include an impressive flyover above the parade ground by four

Vietnam War period Hueys in four-ship formation during the singing of the national anthem. Special remarks were delivered by Medal of Honor recipient and Vietnam veteran Brian M. Thacker, the Secretary of the Navy Carlos Del Toro, U.S. Senator and Vietnam veteran Thomas R. Carper (DE), and our very own Director U.S. Army Maj. Gen. Edward J. Chrystal, Jr.

An emotional Vietnam Veteran Lapel Pin presentation to two Vietnam veterans was delivered (at left) by U.S. Representative Madeleine Dean (PA-04), followed by the ceremony emcee’s resounding rallying cry for all Americans to thank and honor our Nation’s Vietnam veterans and welcome them home!

Our distinct honorees—our Vietnam veterans—were impacted the most as more than 2,700 Vietnam Veteran Lapel Pins were presented throughout the weekend by many of our Nation’s military leaders as a humble thanks for their service to our country.

The Camp Legacy immersive experience included daily precision parachute drops by the U.S. Army Golden Knights team (at right), as well as other outdoor entertainment with various performances by musicians such as The Angel Force Band and high school JROTC bands, as well as military bands and drill teams from all service branches.
